My notes for at least 10 cases, which I gave to Lucrecia to file, are not in their respective charts. These are my personal notes that I take during interviews and they serve as an aid to help me write my reports.

Lucrecia emailed me for my notes on those defendants on 11/8. I provided them on 11/13. A handwritten post-it note on the charts indicates, and Lucrecia also confirms, that my notes were received on these cases.

When I looked through the charts today, the rest of the papers, including other examiners' notes, seem to still be in those charts. Only my notes appear to be removed. I have a list of these 10 charts.

When I asked for notes on a particular case, Lucrecia said Dr. Kaye asked for my notes, took them, and they might still be in Dr. Kaye's office, but Lucrecia could not find them.

There is no legitimate reason for these notes to be missing or taken by Dr. Kaye without my knowledge. This is unusual and concerning.

Beesh
